

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 9, 2009

Pulmonologist Joins Cornerstone Health Care

High Point, NC — Cornerstone Health Care announced that Mark Doner, MD, has joined Cornerstone Pulmonology, a practice specializing in treating patients with lung diseases and sleep disorders, and in providing critical care medicine. The practice is located at 1814 Westchester Drive, Suite 201, in High Point.

Dr. Doner received his undergraduate and medical degrees through an accelerated program at Boston University in Boston, MA. He completed an Internal Medicine residency at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center in San Jose, CA, and a fellowship in Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine at Stanford University, where he also served on the clinical faculty. Prior to joining Cornerstone, Dr. Doner worked at Boice Willis Clinic in Rocky Mount, NC, and previously for eleven years, at Kernodle Clinic in Burlington, NC. At Alamance Regional Medical Center, he started the Pulmonary Rehabilitation program, was Chief of Medicine and Director of the sleep lab, and was Clinical Research Director, serving as Primary Investigator on 14 studies. Dr. Doner joins Dr. Divyang Sorathia and Certified Physician Assistant Justin P. Blaylock at Cornerstone Pulmonology. The practice may be reached at 336 802-2090.

Cornerstone Health Care is a multi-disciplinary physician-owned and managed medical group with 57 practices, located in High Point, Winston-Salem, Asheboro, Thomasville, Jamestown, Kernersville, Archdale, Trinity, Lexington, and Advance. With over 260 providers specializing in family medicine, pediatrics, internal medicine, and obstetrics and gynecology, and a spectrum of subspecialties, and with over 1300 employees, Cornerstone is the second largest physician group in the region.